Deborah Friedlaender has a long history with UC San Diego, where she has been a Chancellor’s Associates Life Member since 1994. She and her husband, the late Dr. Mitchell Friedlaender, served as Co-Chairs of the Chancellor’s Associates from 2008-2011, when they launched the highly regarded Colloquium Series. They were also instrumental in introducing the Mentoring Program, which serves as a mutually constructive link between Chancellor’s Associates donors and Chancellor’s Associates Young Alumni (CAYA).

She has been a Health Sciences Guest Relations Program member since 2010, and a Town & Gown member since 2008. Likewise, she has been an E.W. Scripps Associates member since 2003, and a member of both the Scripps Oceanographic Society and Birch Aquarium since 1992.

She received a Master of Pacific and International Affairs (MIPA) from UC San Diego’s graduate school of International Relations/Pacific Studies (IR/PS) in 1990. She also holds a B.A. and M.A. from Cleveland State University.
